But first Take a look at who's new at the studio.....

Jason Fritts; Percussion

Jason is currently working on his bachelor's degree as CSU Sacramento. Jason is a passionate, well rounded percussionist having participated in various performing groups throughout California and Oregon including CSU, Fresno Bulldog Marching Band, Santa Clara Vanguard Drum & Bugle Corps, CSU All-State Collegiate Jazz Ensemble as well as many others. Jason's goal as a percussion instructor is to help drummers cultivate and develop their musical minds while they learn the skills that will enable them to play in numerous and varied musical contexts.

Sarah McQueen Cunningham; Piano, Voice, Jazz Studies, Music Exploration

Sarah earned her M.A in Jazz Studies and education at Sacramento State University. She is young, vibrant and ooh... so talented. She brings a fun and relaxed spirit to all her student lessons. Sarah is actively involved in music education in the Sacramento area teaching children's choir as well as performing in nationally recognized vocal jazz groups throughout the country.

Angela Roland; Piano

Earning a Masters in Piano Performance and Pedagogy from California State University Sacramento, Angela is a gifted, caring and above all, a fun instructor for students of all ages. Angela's musical experience and talents enable her to teach piano students through the advanced level in classical, pop and basic jazz styles. Her kind manner and friendly approach will set even the tentative student at ease.

Sarah Wood; Violin & Viola

Sarah has just completed her Masters Degree in Performance from Cleveland Institute of Music in Ohio. With her degree in hand and several years of teaching experience, Sarah is back in her home state and ready to teach the next generation of violin students right here in Placer County. Sarah is kind hearted and patient with students of all ages and levels.

Sam Griffith; Trumpet, French Horn, Trombone, Baritone and Tuba

Sam holds a B.A. in Fine Arts – Jazz Performance from the New School University in New York. While at school he had the opportunity to work with and learn from many jazz greats such as Steve Turre and Billy Harper.
